FROM:
Coordinator for Academic Affairs, PAO
SUBJECT: DCI's Program for Deans

STAT

1. Thank you for meeting once again with the group of college deans and heads of major institutes who visited Headquarters on 16 March.

2. Informal feedback suggests that this was the best session thus far. Comments along the line of "I never have learned so much about anything in just one day" and "I was impressed with the sense of integrity and professionalism engendered by all the speakers" were typical.

3. Again, thank you very much for your support and particularly for squeezing this into a busy schedule.

STAT

1. We would like to thank you for once again hosting the luncheon for the deans who visited Headquarters as guests of the Acting Director. The program was a huge success and much of the success is directly attributable to the candor of our speakers and the warmth with which our guests were greeted at the luncheon. Many commented that their views of the CIA had changed markedly as a result of this visit.

2. Again, thank you for helping make this program such a great success.

DCI's Program for Deans, 16 March 1987

1. Thank you for agreeing to host the period of refreshments and luncheon for this group of college deans and heads of major academic programs who will visit the CIA on 16b March as guests of the Acting DCI.

2. Would you make a few informal remarks as we are about to sit down to our luncheon in the Executive Dining Room. The attendees will be cleared at the SECRET level.

3. We have invited the deputy directors and other senior Agency officers, plus a group of recent graduates from the institutions represented by the attendees to join us for refreshments and lunch.

4. A list of attendees with their biographies, and a draft copy of the program and list of the luncheon invitees are attached for your information.

1. We request that you host a visit of university deans who will visit Headquarters on Monday, 16 March. The last such program (10 November 86) was highly successful and provided a forum for airing our interactions with academia, as well as providing some excellent contacts for our recruiters and other components.

2. We ask that you make some introductory remarks and discuss our relationship with academia. You will be followed by presentations by each of the deputy directors or their representatives. George Lauder will meet with the invitees for some closing remarks and to answer any lingering questions.

SUBJECT: Program for Deans, 10 November 1986

1. We request that you host a visit of university deans and office directors who will visit Headquarters on Monday, 10 November. The last such program (14 April), was highly successful and provided a forum for airing our interactions with academia, as well as providing some excellent contacts for our recruiters and other components.

2. The DDCI has agreed to make some introductory remarks and to discuss our relationship with academia. He will be followed by presentations by each of the deputy directors or their representatives. We request that you meet with the guests in the DCI Conference Room at 1530-1545 on 10 November for some closing remarks, to answer any lingering questions, and to cap, through your personal appearance, what has proven to be an extremely worthwhile interchange.

3. The requested session is primarily social. The guests would like to meet you and perhaps share some of their observations.
